I copy and pasted the information into another excel spreadsheet and then it printed out fine. I attached it to this email if anyone wants it. I compared it to the one that Ken sent and it looks like the information transferred over.

Subject: Weekly report

Hello,

Attached is a blank copy of a Weekly Summary Report.

It includes a summary of samples assigned, completed and in your backlog. Additionally it includes a summary of time out of the lab and overtime worked and a place for your name.

Please fill this out each week and email a copy to Chuck and me at the end of each week going forward.

Any questions please let me know.

Thanks

Ken
